Short Cuts in Sewing

Helen Easter, Iowa State College

Table of Contents

Do you remember the days when the sewing lady came to you sewed and then you pulled the bastings? And there were yards of spools of bastings, and mother made you save them all so carefully the hours spent on fine hand finishings and tiny seams, that not only your friends admired your new dress? But that was several years ago, not only to save time, energy and basting thread, but to do even more possible.
