SUMMARY

Greed, Lust and Power: Franciscan Strategies for Building a More Just World contains the proceedings of the annual Franciscan Symposium held at the Washington Theological Union in May 2010. This year's topic engaged participants with speakers – Joseph Nangle, Michael Crosby, Darleen Pryds and Vincent Cushing – whose descriptions of the world in which we live and proposals as to how we may confront this world from the heart of a tradition whose members walk in the footprints of the One who came not to “condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him” (John 3:17).
