Librarians, teachers and other adults concerned with mot youth hunters want to provide them with books that featu many sources cite a concern at the lack of positive, or at l hunting in books for youth. There was also a lack of any c bibliography that identified books that feature hunters ar that identified how they were portrayed in those books. T project was to create an annotated bibliography which wo support recommendations for reading and purchase. Th consists of 101 hunting picture books and novels which t through book summaries and reviews. The annotations ir various hunting aspects and book review information. An annotated bibliography, the number of positive, negative portrayals of hunters or hunting are 51 (51%), 20 (20%), a respectively; there were 4 (4%) titles with no overall portr hunting that the researcher could ascertain from the revie review of related literature included the topics of hunters relevant texts, and student interests.
