First Things First: Rediscovering Bills of Rights

Hans A. Linde, Willamette University College of Law

Abstract

The first annual Judge Irving A. Levine Memorial program was held at the University of Baltimore, College Park, Maryland. The topic of the program was "States' Bills of Rights: A Call for Renewal." Justice Linde's speech, set forth below, addressed the failure of state courts to decide questions of constitutional rights under their own state constitutions. Justice Linde suggests that a state's law protects the interest at stake. Justice Linde suggests that a state with a constitutional question should always examine its state constitution before turning to the Federal Constitution.*
