The formation of postcolonial theory

Lazare S Rukundwa, Andries G van Aarde

Abstract

The purpose of this article is to outline certain options and struggles, which gave rise to postcolonial various experiences of anti-slavery and anti-colonial movements in Western and tricontinental countries of postcolonial theory. It is argued that postcolonial theory provides a means of defiance by which anti-colonial practices, regardless of time and space, can be challenged. The article consists of a section in which the discussion of the elements that functioned as justification of the formation of postcolonial theory, namely a humanitarian, economic, political, and feminism and anti-colonialism is discussed in the third instance, followed by a reflection on the concept of
