Abstract

This paper by Tim Judah, a journalist and writer who has covered the former Yugoslavia and the Balkans whose knowledge of the region is second to none, is the first in the LSEE Papers series. The paper takes on a topic known mainly as a source of 'bad news'. Tim Judah worked on this paper and the concept of a 'Yugosphere' as a Senior Visiting Fellow in 2009. The existence or emergence of a Yugosphere in the Western Balkans has been a contentious issue and has made headlines across the region.
