Abstract

The first book to cover all three instruments governing the choice-of-court agreement in Europe. Written by the author of the Explanatory Report on the 2005 Hague Convention, commissioned by the Hague Conference on Private International Law. Considers the instruments thematically according to scope, validity and effect, and in a range of special cases. Includes practical appendices, including: the complete text of the Hague Convention; the report on the Hague Conference on Private International Law from the Brussels Convention, Brussels I Regulation (2000 and 2012), and Lugano Convention; other selected provisions.
