Talk dirty to me: Why books about sex and relationships belong in libraries

Stacy Creel, University of Southern Mississippi

Abstract

Mississippi has the highest teen birth rate in the nation and over 50% of high school students have had sex. This article discusses the facts about the why there is a need YA fiction and non-fiction in libraries deal with sex. The article provides some brief tips for defending books in the library's collection and recommends titles.
