Book Excerpt: The Guns of Normandy: A Soldier's Eye View of France

Abstract

Editor's Note: Everyone who studies the land battles of the Second World War knows that artillery was the principle weapon employed by the Allied forces. However, they rarely receive the attention they deserve in narratives of the campaign. Blackburn has written a book, The Guns of Normandy which puts them in their rightful place. CMH is proud to publish two chapters from the book in that our Autumn issue will include an excerpt from Mr. Blackburn's first sequel. Chapter 15 takes up the story on 12 July 1944 as 4th Field Artillery Regiment to support 4th Canadian Infantry Brigade west of Caen.
